I. Notable Work

- A. Set up a system for approving funding requests, including spreadsheets, email responses, and lines of communication.
- B. Dealt with new business, including (but not limited to):
 1. An invitation to nominate students for the UCSC Library System's Oral History Project.
 2. An invitation to send students to participate in Long Range Development planning.
 3. An invitation to hold a future SUA meeting in the UCSC arboretum to raise student awareness surrounding that space.
 4. A request for an interview from City on a Hill Press.
 5. A request for a number of statistics I had previously mentioned. This prompted an hour or so of data aggregation and manipulation from last year's CLASS survey.
- C. Responded to a number of purchase orders made by other officers and bodies.
- D. Prepared a list of items to be addressed at today's SUA meeting, recorded here for the sake of archival:
 1. An upcoming meeting with future UC Regent Paul Monge
 2. The aforementioned LRDP meeting
 3. Recruiting for the aforementioned LRDP meeting
 4. The aforementioned invitation to meet in the UCSC arboretum
 5. The currently open applications for a new VPAA and related processes
 6. The existence of these Daily Reports.
- E. Had a brief discussion with VPSL Tamra Owens regarding our current budget and some related issues. She made some excellent points which I'll be addressing at a future officer meeting.
- F. Worked to find a time for weekly officer meetings that can be regularly attended by all officers.

- G. Attended the tail end of SOFA deliberations.
- H. Attended tonight's SUA meeting.
