I. Notable Work

- A. Discussed the implications of the upcoming UCSC-hosted UCSCA conference with Vice President of External Affairs Judith Gutierrez.
- B. Sent out a mass email to the assembly regarding the upcoming Long Range Development Planning session, which must be RSVP'd to in advance.
- C. Confirmed officer availability for and attempted to quell a controversy around a meeting with Chancellor George Blumenthal scheduled by my predecessor, Ray Inoue.
- D. Drafted a new bio to be used for the SUA website including my background and goals (both short and long term).
- E. Approved several funding requests made by other officers in the Student Union.
- F. Examined, corroborated, and approved a number of requests for intern pay logged by the other Offices.
- G. Flagged a funding request for further inquiry due to concerns about legality and benefit to the fee-paying student body.
- H. Worked to sort out the current employment status of a number of interns, including those held under the currently unled Office of Academic Affairs and the recently resigned Treasurer.

II. Other Notes

- A. I have started learning yo-yo tricks to amuse me when I get too stressed or need to think seriously about something.
