I. Notable Work

- A. Worked at length on a number of documents designed to help lead applicants through the SUA's various funding processes.
- B. Finalized the hiring of the SUA's future Treasurer, Pierre Vo. After trainings are scheduled, he should be able to undertake the orientation process and begin work in the near future.
- C. Responded to various correspondences, an increasing number about funding requests for events which fall late in the quarter from organizations which were unable, for various reasons, to apply to SOFA.
- D. Queued a number of these reports to be published within the UCSC WCMS system.
- E. Attended a lengthy assembly meeting, at which the following items were addressed (among others):
  1. A sponsorship request for the proposed SUA Fee Referendum by Vice President of Student Life Tamra Owens
  2. An incredibly well put together presentation by Vice President of External Affairs Judith Gutierrez
  3. A number of funding requests for upcoming events
  4. A recent list of demands sent out by UCSC's African/Black Student Alliance (ABSA).
  5. A number of funding and sponsorship deliberations.
