Fall Quarter review areas of improvements:

College eight will outreach to its residents to educate more residents about the college senate.

College Eight will table out in the quad to spread awareness of current events and to spread awareness of what's happening in the SUA.

College Eight will work harder to include more residents in its government in order to have a more collaborative opinion.

In conclusion, I provide this summary as my detailed report for January 2014. If you have any questions, feel free to contact me.

Respectfully,
