

For the month of March, my fellow representatives and I worked to facilitate and relay the necessary information back to our peers at RCC. With March being the end of Winter quarter, our communication between reps and consequently our attendance was not as strong as it could have been and we will aim to improve such communication for the coming months. Beyond that, I believe we performed well in terms of absorbing the information discussed in SUA and gave concise updates to our council.